Addendum to:

Table Rock Lake Revised Master Plan and Environmental Assessment Comments

What are the most important factors that affect your opinion:

Protection of the environmentally-sensitive areas on the charts. But additionally. protection of the scenic value of the upper, pristine regions of Table Rock, and White River as it enters the lake -- for the benefit of the public. [We are residents. The westernmost tip of our small 2.6 acre home parcel is adjacent to USACE boundary.]

Others Comments:

As stated, our lot and home is adjacent to the USACE boundary is US Privacy Act 5 USC 552 (b)

Alternative 2 is a common sense approach for lake usage. It can serve to protect environmentally-sensitive areas here -- that keep being threatened by ill-conceived development proposals. Eagles regularly traverse this narrow stretch of river and lake at very low heights during the winter. The massive Turkey Vulture nesting area just west of Beaver makes this one of the most sensitive areas of the upper lake. These birds also soar constantly above the valley and lake, "below" our eye level. Herons are abundant here. Protection of the flow easement is critical during high lake and/or flooding events. Massive flooding damage in the Hwy 187 valley to the west and resulting run-off into the lake, was unbelievable just this month. Unchecked development would exacerbate run-off into the lake, especially with chemicals and defoliants, and must be avoided. This area is so highly visible to the thousands of lake users and residents (of the town of Beaver, the island portion of US Privacy Act 5 USC 552 (b) US Privacy Act 5 USC 552 (b) he "scenic value" of this area is very sensitive.

An example of a disruptive proposal was the proposed AHTD bridge project several years ago, across this valley. It was cancelled and it's negative affects were avoided narrowly. We can assume that the environmental principles used by the USACE helped in that community effort to stop an unneeded project. However, a larger and potentially much more devastating project is looming for this pristine area. Our sensitive land, with some of the highest bluffs and ridgelines overlooking the river and lake, would be traversed by the 150+ foot towers of the SWEPCO 345kv power line project. The most prominent feature in this area would become the towers and they clear-cut foliage easements, as they cross ridgelines. The towers and lines would be disastrous for the vultures and eagles. The accompanying chemical run-off and erosion issues are real. The visual, audible, and RFI impact from the corona effect and electrical arcing during the frequent thick, morning fog in this valley would be unbearable. Public use of Table Rock Lake would be significantly impacted ... in a negative way. The application of strict standards by USACE, as offered by the proposed Revised Master Plan, can stop this devastating intrusion to the protected areas of White River from Beaver Dam to the start of Table Rock Lake at Beaver.

What are the most important factors that affect your opinion? THE ONLY QUESTION

WE HAVE WITH ALTERNATIVE 2 BALANCED USE" IS THE

50' VEGETATIVE MANAGEMENT. WE UNDERSTAND THIS IS THE FIRST

80' BELOW THE TAKELINE". WE MUST NOW HAVE PERMITS FOR ANYTHING

WE DO PAST THIS LINE SO MANAT WOULD CHANGE? NOTERMITS?

Other Comments WE HAVE LIVED ON TRL. SINCE 1970 WITH NEVER A PROBLEM ALTHOUGH WE'LL NEVER UNDERSTAND CLOSING JOE BALD PARK WHEN ELECAT SITES WOULD HAVE MADE IT A GOING CONCERNAREDAVINE THE ROADS EVERY FEW YEARS THEN BUILDING A GATE HOUSE THEN CLOSING AND LETTING IT ALL GO TO RUIN. A MANAGE NEW T DISCISION VERY DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND FOR SUCH A GREAT LOCATION AND DESTRABLE PIECE OF DRODERTY RICHIN HISTORY, JOINING THE JAMES & WHITE RIVERS. OVERTHESE 43 YEARS OF LAKE CIVING AND CREATING ASMALL SUB DIVISION (RIDGE LINE VILLA ESTATES) WE HAVE CONSIDERED THE CORPS OUR PARTNER AND THE DERSONNEL COOPERITIVE AND UNDERSTANDING.
